

D Working with Words: True or False

In your copybook, write true or false after each statement.

1. Steam trains were invented in the early 1800s. _____
2. The first steam engine pulled a train of eight wagons. _____
3. Today, Robert Stephenson is known as the 'Father of the Railways'. _____
4. George and Robert Stephenson built The Rocket steam engine. _____
5. Japan's Linear Shinkansen is a bullet train. _____
6. The Tube opened in London in 1963. _____
7. Today, New York's underground system has 572 stations. _____
8. The Channel Tunnel is 50 km long and 50 m below the sea. _____
9. The Luas is a tram or light railway system that runs through Dublin. _____
10. Twenty-seven of the world's busiest train stations are in Japan. _____

E Grammar: Homophones – two to too

Rewrite the sentences below using the correct word: two, to or too.

1. The lady took the train from Dublin _____ Sligo.
2. In the 19th century, _____ much traffic in cities became a problem.
3. Engineers tried _____ solve this by building underground tunnels.
4. The parents wanted _____ take the yellow train and the children did _____.
5. The train travelled under _____ bridges while going _____ the city.
6. My mother was _____ sick _____ travel to the wedding _____ days ago.
7. There were _____ trains in the station _____ take people _____ the game.
8. We left _____ late and missed the train _____ Galway.
9. The _____ children travelled from England _____ France.
10. The _____ o'clock train was far _____ slow for us to take.